

FORT SMITH PUBLIC LIBRARY ENDOWMENT TRUST

Dear Library Supporters,

I wanted to share with you a post that the library put on their Facebook page regarding up to date information. Below is a message from the library administration.

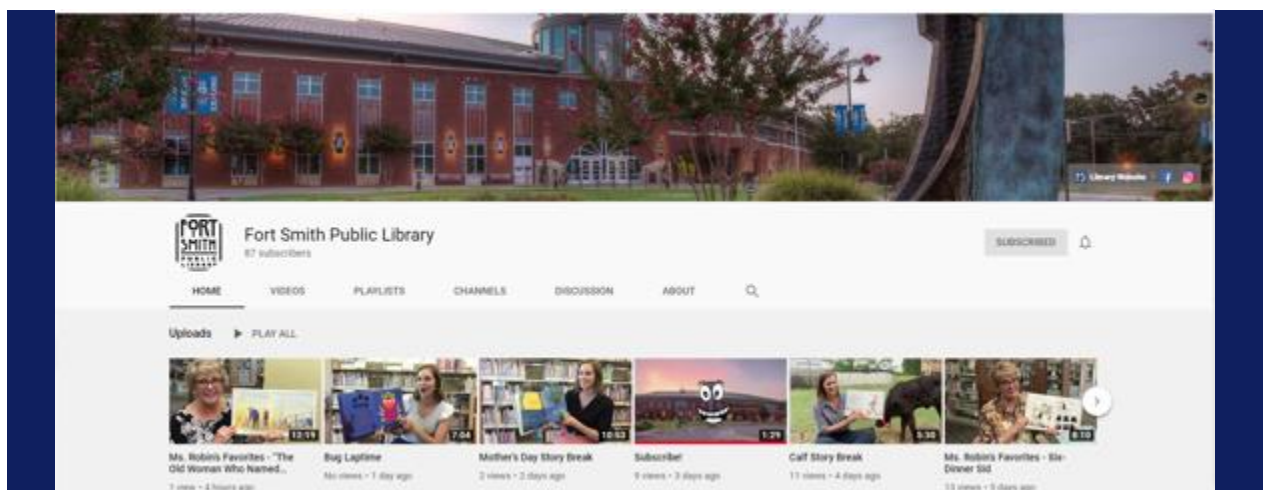

"We miss our library customers! We're excited to let you know that the library will reopen with limited services and hours in June – watch our Facebook page for our announcement of the exact date. Since social distancing and sanitizing will be in place in accordance with Governor Hutchinson's and the CDC recommendations, many of the library services you're used to won't be available initially. Library life will be different for awhile, but we are looking forward to seeing you back in the library!

Don't forget that right now we are offering curbside delivery of materials, plus we have a lot of digital resources you can access online. We also have been posting lots of virtual storytimes and other programs – check them out at www.facebook.com/fortsmithlibrary and www.youtube.com/fortsmithpubliclibrary. Also coming up: our annual summer reading program for kids, teens, and adults will be offered completely online! Watch Facebook and the library website for details."

Thank you for your continued support of our library and endowment.

Hope to see you all soon!

Cindy
